

Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology Excellence Through Equity Graduate Scholarships

Please complete and submit to: rebecca.laposa@utoronto.ca

Applicant Information

Name: _____

Email: _____

I confirm that I self-identify as a member of a priority under-represented group, as indicated in the award criteria:

- Indigenous Peoples of Canada (First Nations, Inuit, and Métis). Please see additional details at <https://indigenous.utoronto.ca/initiatives-protocols/indigenous-substantiation/>
- Self-identify as Black (including Black African, Black Caribbean, Black North American, multi-racial students who have and identify with their Black ancestry, etc.)

☐ Yes

☐ No

I allow the scholarship reviewers to access my application materials for graduate studies for the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology

☐ Yes

☐ No

Applicant Personal Essay

We encourage you to use the following page to share what life experiences have shaped who you are today, your experiences with challenges and your potential for research contributions and research excellence. Your letter will remain confidential (only read and accessed by the scholarship review committee). All scholarship reviewers have undergone training in Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and reflect the Temerty Faculty of Medicine's strong commitment to diversity and inclusion.

Please limit your personal essay to 500 words maximum.

